

Take a tour of museum's store

Updated on the 02 January
2008
09:53

Print this

Published 02/01/2008 09:52

Dacorum Heritage Trust has re-started its Tuesday Tours at Two.

A look around the Museum Store in Berkhamsted not only reveals the diverse collection of Dacorum artefacts but also allows people to view objects in their museum home - a very different experience to seeing them on display.

On the second Tuesday of the month, the store will open its doors to visitors and with more than 2,000 objects there is plenty to see.

Tours need to be booked in advance from Dacorum Heritage Trust on 01442 879525 or email assistantcurator@dacorumheritage.org.uk to reserve a place.