

Cranstone exhibition set for Civic

Updated on the 14 September
2007
10:02

Print this

Published 11/09/2007 11:26

An exhibition about the life of Lefevre Cranstone, the 19th century Hemel Hempstead artist, will be at the Civic Centre, Berkhamsted from September 20/23.

It will also be the launch of a new Dacorum Heritage Trust publication, Lefevre Cranstone; A Victorian Quaker Artist by Elizabeth Buteaux.

School groups are welcome to attend, although pre-booking is preferable. There will be drawing and colouring activities for children.

For further information and opening times, contact Richard Lewis, on 01442 870525 or go to their website www.dacorumheritage.co.uk